

ANTIGUA
AT SHARYLAND PLANTATION

"Upon passing through the gates, you will leave the busy world behind you and enter into an innovative, diverse locale. The community of Antigua is full of unique architectural styles, ample open space and diverse people who desire to stand apart from the crowd."

Secluded behind magnificent gates, the exclusive community of Antigua should feel as naturally timeless and elegant as the hand and imagination of man can create. This most prestigious address in Sharyland Plantation boasts an unparalleled haven of serenity and beauty.

Gracious neighborhoods and proud Texan homes compose the community of Antigua. Set apart from the distractions of everyday life, Antigua is a beacon of relaxation and enjoyment of nature, through both an abundance of lush foliage without and airy, private courtyards within.

Antigua's signature designs carefully preserve styles developed from years of rich Texas tradition, yet are modified with artistic refinement and sophisticated detailing in perfect step with the individual lifestyle needs of today's resort homeowner.

The high levels of craftsmanship combined with unequalled area amenities make Antigua a much-sought enclave of detail, function and beauty. Large, luxurious lots offer classic lake views made private by a tastefully gated main entry. Antigua is rustic elegance at its finest.
